WASHINGTON, Aug. 30-(AP)—Undersecretary of State Acheson said today the United States will seek indemnities from Yugoslavia for loss of life and property in two recent attacks on American planes.

He told his news conference a request for indemnities has not been presented as yet because the state department is awaiting a full report on all particulars of the incidents.

In response to a question, Acheson said he did not know whether Marshal Tito had put in writing his expresion of regret that the incidents had occurred and his assurances that they would not be repeated. He said, however, that the

The Gift of Service

"Stir up the gift of God which is in thee," was the challenge given by St. Paul to one of his close followers. What this command means is that every Christian has talents and capacities which he must utilize for the glory of God, the good of his fellow-men, and the advancement of the Christian faith.

Many have responded to St. Paul's injunction by asking: "What can I do?" We may object that we have not the ability to preach the Gospel, to teach others, or the strength or training to organize movements for the alleviation of social and economic evils that call for Christian action.

The answer to that is simple. A soldier is not called upon to be an expert in military strategy or to command other men. There are others more gifted and skilled in these matters and to such the role of leadership is given. But no battles can be won without soldiers, nor can any movement, however well planned, succeed unless it has devoted and conscientious followers.

Christians are soldiers in the service of God and the gift in them is the power to render service. It makes no difference whether that service is small or great. It is enough to know every station in life is filled with opportunity. Men and women can serve God by being good workers or good parents. Children can serve Him by giving respect and obedience to their guardians and by using their time profitably in study and play. Whatever other endowments we lack, all of us have one gift in common—the power to live Christian lives. God's two great commandments are that we love Him and that we love also our neighbors. If we offer God our prayers and worship, yield our wills to His, make offerings of all we do, we shall surely please Him. If to our neighbor we extend courtesy, cooperation and understanding, and share in his burdens and trials, we shall truly make use of the gift within us.

E.W. Flower DRY GOODS CO

No PLEASANTER WAY in the world to refuel energy, depleted by heat and summer sports, than with Chase's High Crest Chocolates. People who know candy are enthusiastic about the 19 fresh, individual flavors—the Chase-chocolate, processed from cocoa beans imported from Africa and South and Middle America. They like the way Chase "pours it on" to form a rich, thick, firm and mellow coating.

FOR SUMMER

... AND EASY TO TAKE

Most boys and girls—as well as men and women know the need for quick build-up of energy lost in summer sports. So they "re-pep" with the burgundy, blue and gold Personality Pack. Ask for it at your favorite candy counter. Priced at $1.50 the pound.

Cards Beat Giants, Gain Full Game

Pollet Limits New Yorkers To Five Hits

By Joe Reichler Associated Press Sports Writer) Racing down the stretch, the St Louis Cardinals are trying to explode the theory that the team in first place on July 4th, usually wins the pennant.

On that day the Cards were trailing the National league leading Brooklyn Dodgers by seven and a half games and appeared hopelessly out of the race. Today they are 21/2 games in front. The Cards gained a full game yesterday by shutting out the New York Giants 4-0 as the Chicago Cubs beat the Dodgers 3-2. Howie Pollet, Card ace, hurled the shutout, limiting the New Yorkers to five hits in register-W L Pet. GB ing his 17th triumph. Dave Kos-
